MONDAY OCTOBER 26, 1908

Vote your ticket straight. Get the habit, though you be a Democrat.

According to the Civic Federation idea, "there ain't goin' to be no mayor." At least, they hope not.

There is one blessed thought: Democrats are so accustomed to defeat that the result on election day will not hurt.

Delegate Kuhio must be reelected if Hawaii hopes to retain its hold on the confidence of the United States Congress.

Get together and elect the straight ticket. That is enough work for one week. There is no time to waste on side-issues.

If someone should take up the hearsay evidence of Thurston's private and public record wouldn't he stand before the community as a Beauf?

Of course Japanese laborers could open an era of ruin in Hawaii. Is that any reason why they should do so, when they will be the first to suffer?

If W. C. Aoki should be elected Mayor of Honolulu wouldn't it jar you? Vote the straight Republican ticket, and then you will be sure it can't happen.

Democrats concede New York to Taft. The West is for Taft. Bryan will carry what is left—his old standby, the solid South,—and thus finally be elected for a third time to remain at home.

The Equality party has yet to be heard from. And the Sons of Rest and Allied Society of Political Knock-ers have not issued their wise conclusions regarding their fellow-men.

Independent candidates who have only evil associates to recommend them can't expect to make any headway with honest voters, though they spend their time besmirching an opponent.

Waimanalo has done splendidly in its reception of the Republican candidates. Even Link will be unable to turn this stronghold from the path of political rectitude, which it promises to take this year.

Mr. Thurston has written a letter that is a perfect confession of weakness for the unhappy cause for which he is making a miserably degraded contest. Virtue would be its own reward in this case if there were virtue in it.

Think of the moral standard represented by the Civic Federation committee when it endorses the laukae administration! Still they say it is a shame to suggest that Honolulu is long on hypocrisy and short on common honesty.

Democrats have issued their first claim to a majority in the Electoral College. This recalls the remark of an Eastern paper that the Democrats carry the elections in September and the Republicans in November. The Republican estimate will come later.

What folly for Japanese laborers to allow themselves to be swayed by agitators. Strikes following demands for higher wages will mean arousing to renewed vigor the whole Japanese-in-Hawaii apprehension. Must the Japanese of these islands, after their long record for peaceful work, be the first to revive the misunderstanding and strife just now quieted by the demonstrations of friendship consequent to the visit of Americans to Japan?

The discomfiture of Cathcart's assaults since his endorsement by business and political leaders shows the enemy to be in the position of the man "et by a bear," of which the following is a true account:

A young man went West for his health and joined a hunting party that traveled into a wild region. One day the father received a telegram:
"Your son is dead."

He telegraphed back: "Please send remains."

In a little while he received this telegram: "There ain't no remains.
He was et by a bear."

STRAIGHT TICKET VOTING NECESSARY TO SUCCESS.

Victory for the straight Republican ticket should be the single purpose of vigorous campaigning for this final week of electioneering.

A straight fight for the straight ticket—Congressional, Legislative, and County—is the only way open to the party for success and to the people of the Counties and the Territory for the prosperity and contentment that goes with competent administration of public affairs.

True, the enemies of the party will daily decorate their pages with their malicious statements. Their effort to center the campaign on personalities will continue because the personality camp with its combination of queer political bedfellows has succeeded in getting itself into such a mire of untruth that it must fight to save itself from being utterly wiped out in the courts.

So far as the Republican party is concerned there is not and should not be any personal issue.

We have a Delegate to Congress to elect. We have Legislators to return and a city government to provide for. The ticket is complete and good. It must be carried through as a whole, and supported in its entirety by the Republican voters or every candidate may go down in complete and ignominious defeat.

The coming week should be marked by the greatest exhibition of teamwork and solid, enthusiastic campaigning that this island has ever seen. Oahu should set the pace in a style that will be communicated to all the other islands of the group, and round up on election day a splendid tribute to the good sense and strong partisanship of Hawaii's electorate.

The Republican Delegate cannot be elected if there is to be a continuance of petty bickering over other portions of the Republican ticket.
The necessary Legislative Republican majority cannot be returned if

THE RATES ARE LOW.

there is split-ticket talk in the air, up to and including the election day.
The City and County officers elected will be a heterogeneous collection of unbusinesslike and irresponsible antagonists if the rules of partisanship are to be disregarded and the voting becomes a scramble to pay personal debts of revenge.

The straight Republican vote is absolutely necessary to the good standing of this Territory in its relation with the important national affairs in which it is now and will be involved for the coming two years.

Some will claim that no harm can come of a vote for the Republican candidate for Delegate and a split ticket for the Legislative or County officers. That is where they make a great mistake.

The man who votes the split ticket and preaches the split ticket makes an enemy. Friends of every candidate immediately distrust him. He cannot fail to make known his favorites. These favorites will surely be knifed by the friends of the candidates he sees fit to slaughter. One voter in working out his revenge may slash the Delegate, another the candidates for the Legislature, and yet another the City and County candidates. No two men will split their ticket alike. The result is that the candidates for the more important offices will suffer most seriously, and Honolulu may wake up the morning after election to find that the split ticket has done most disastrous work.

Time enough in this campaign has been given to personalities.
The main issues have been slighted.
The candidates and the workers have been at sixes and sevens. Now that the atmosphere has been cleared except for the usual snarls of the yellow dogs on the outside, let common sense and honest partisanship prevail. This will assure an election return creditable to the good name of Honolulu and Hawaii.

IRON WORKS MEN CHEER

His record, both in private and public life, had been clean and good. He asked the electors to vote the straight Republican ticket. He was applauded.

Wm. C. Roe, a staunch Republican and the presiding officer of the meeting, made a few appropriate remarks for John W. Cathcart. Three rousing cheers were called for, everyone present joining with vim and spontaneous applause. Roe said that Cathcart at the Orpheum last Friday night had "done up those fellows." This brought the audience to its feet, cheering and yelling for Cathcart.

John H. Wise, candidate for Sheriff, told the voters not to vote for laukae, because his candidacy was a dead one. "It would be better for you to cast your votes for Jarrett than giving them to laukae," said John. He then explained his position, stating that he was independent and as such he would run the police department economically and without being dictated to by anyone.

The other speakers for the Republican ticket were John Hughes, Jim Quinn, E. W. Quinn, and Norman Watkins.

est pieces of SILK ever imported

EHLERS

(GOVERNOR FREAR)

"As I said in my speech at Alala Park, country comes first, party second, as a matter of course.

"This DOES NOT MEAN that PARTY should be IGNORED or that the VOTER should select from the DIFFERENT PARTIES the BEST MEN VIEWED AS INDIVIDUALS.

"PARTIES ARE NECESSARY and DESIRABLE IN REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT.

"Team work is essential to accomplish practical results. Accordingly in politics as well as business it is often necessary to select and vote for men who by working together can accomplish desired results even though they are not men who might be preferred as individuals.

"Of course, there may be men on the party ticket who should not be voted for either for the good of the country or party, but just where the line should be drawn is a matter for individual judgment."
